

Notice Of Intent

To Publish Photos and Other Media, Written, Audio & Video Content, Including Intellectual Property Rights.

It is the intention of www.oncetime.com, and its affiliates to continue publishing photos, media and written content that was formally online in the www.oncetime.com community website. In an effort to ensure that we have your permission to do so, we are currently serving this notice of intent and ask you to consider approving any photos or other materials you may have submitted in the past. Until we develop our final EULA and release documentation, this serves as an interim agreement and understanding between you and us in regards to any of your content.

End User Licence Agreement – Principles

For the last ten years, people have submitted their photographs to us and it is impossible to go through each picture and either check the names and places for accuracy, or to know whether the photograph is something that you may want removed. We therefore have to rely on you to let us know who people are in various pictures, so we can update the database. Helping us in this way also allows the search features to be more accurate. It is our intention not to ‘tick anyone off’ with some of the content we may have on our site. Therefore, we are more than willing (within reason) to facilitate your concerns. At the same time, we will not entertain ridiculous demands either. Try and be responsible and reasonable when making your request. Our full EULA will be published shortly, but will not deviate from the principles described above.

Policy – Principles

We wish to make it clear that we do not own your pictures, but rather, once you have submitted them, you have given us the right to publish them for yours and others’ enjoyment as restricted specifically to the websites mentioned above. However, we cannot and will not sell your likeness, content, intellectual property, email address, etc., without your express permission. At the same time, we are not responsible for someone downloading materials from our website and violating your rights. Every effort to ensure that this does not happen will be taken and you will have our full cooperation in investigating any such claim. Rest assured that the content is strictly for this community and no third-party, commercial enterprise will be snooping or soliciting you without your permission. Please report any such incidents to us immediately, in the event of cyber-attacks or hacking, etc. You do however, give us the right to display your content in an appropriate manner for the purposes of social networking, etc. A detailed policy description will be published shortly, but will not deviate from the principles described above. Please be advised by visiting/viewing this site you automatically agree to give us the right to publish your pictures or other content as defined above.

We reserve the right to remove any content, pictures, etc. at the sole discretion of the editorial staff.

Founder's Remarks

On a personal note, as the Founder and Editor of these websites, I wish to assure you that I totally respect your wishes, concerns and privacy, but also encourage you to help us to keep this site alive by not being unreasonable in withholding your pictures. Keep in mind we are a start-up and also trying to preserve history for the generations to come. Your feedback is important to us; do not hesitate to email me at editor@oncetime.com. If you are a lawyer and would like to contribute your advice on these matters, we would love to hear from you.

Sincerely,

PC Harris
